Applicants will have a set window (usually eight weeks) during which applications can be entered, viewed and submitted within the Je-S system. As a result, any applications or amendments must be completed and submitted within this timeframe. Programme Managers will not be able to offer discretionary extensions to any applicant.

Using the Joint electronic-Submission System (Je-S)

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Je-S Add New Document" with a green header. Below the header, there is a green instruction: "To find the council, document type and scheme combination for a particular call please use the call search." A green button labeled "Call Search" is followed by the text "(opens in a new window)". The form contains four dropdown menus: "Select Council:" with "MRC" selected, "Select Document Type:" with "Studentship Proposal" selected, "Select Scheme:" with "Industrial CASE" selected, and "Select Call/Type/Mode (optional):" with "-- Select Call/Type/Mode --" selected. Below these is a checkbox labeled "Copy existing document?" which is currently unchecked. At the bottom, there are two buttons: "Create Document" (highlighted in blue) and "Cancel".

Please note that the vast majority of the electronic fields CANNOT be completed without the completion of the Project Details section of the application, however, this section CANNOT be completed until the call is available.

Therefore we recommend that if you wish to start the application off line, that you download an electronic print of the Word or Open Document. You can then copy and paste the text sections from the document to the Je-S form when the call becomes available.

Please also note that the Je-S text sections within the online application will only accept 'Plain Text'.
